

FLY  FREE
AMERICA.[®]

Pricing Guide

Resort Condominiums Fly Free America® is very pleased to announce that we have added more properties to the already fabulous selection of vacation destinations from which to choose. Resort condominium facilities vary in size and type. Your travel consultant will provide a description of the facility that you have selected upon request.

Condominium Arrivals are governed by the respective association, which may have a restricted arrival day policy. Most associations have designated Saturday as the check-in/check-out day. Please ask your travel consultant for details. By definition, a one-week or 7-night minimum would mean a stay from Saturday-to-Saturday, which coincides with some airline requirements for a Saturday night stay.

Condominium Pricing and Minimum Nights To obtain your complimentary airline tickets, you must book your travel plans through Fly Free America®, pay for, and stay the required minimum number of nights at your choice of destinations as provided in the current Vacation Guide. Prices and required minimum nights stay are set at the time our Pricing Guide prints, which are subject to change. In the event of an increase, we will try to provide you with the prices and minimum nights as printed in the current Pricing Guide.

Departure Cities Additional departure cities are available at a surcharge. Ask your travel consultant for information.

Blackout Dates and Sellout Dates (Everything is based on availability.) If the property sells out, you may choose an alternate destination, hotel or resort condominium. Please make your reservations as early as possible. Travel around Christmas, New Year's, Presidents, and school break weeks are subject to availability.

Canadians All prices listed in the pricing guide are listed in U.S. Dollars. Prices listed are the room rate per couple, not per person.

Canadian departure cities are not currently listed in our pricing guide, please use the nearest U.S. airport listed in the guide to determine your minimum number of nights required.

Example: If departing from Vancouver or Calgary, Canada, which is not in the guide use Seattle as a reference for minimum night stay requirements and pricing. You would still put Vancouver or Calgary as your departure airport on your reservation voucher so our travel agents know which airport you will depart from. If departing from Montreal or Toronto use New York as a reference for minimum night stay requirements and pricing. You would still put Toronto or Montreal as your departure airport. If departing from Winnipeg use Minneapolis as a reference for minimum night stay requirements and pricing. You would still put Winnipeg as your departure airport.

Blackout Dates Generally, there are few blackout dates. Some hotels, however, are blacked out Christmas and New Year's, and others are blacked out President's week. All hotel rooms and condos are provided on an "as available" basis. If the property is sold out, we will not be able to accommodate you. Please make your reservations as early as possible to avoid being disappointed.
